Dear Pastor Friend:

Please allow me to recommend for your consideration the ministry of Brother Matt Northcutt. He has distinguished himself in the classroom of Ambassador Baptist College, both academically and testimony-wise. Matt and his wife, Katie, have both demonstrated a sincere desire to serve God, and their burden for the mission field is obvious.

Matt has been actively involved at Ambassador Baptist College, in several areas of the college ministry. He has traveled with musical groups for the college, and also works on the ABC staff in computer graphics design work. It is my privilege to be his pastor at Emmanuel Baptist Church, and Matt has been a faithful, involved church member. Now that Matt and Katie are married, she is also an active member of Emmanuel. It is a delight to have such fine young people in our church.

I believe Matt to be a man of integrity, principles, and discipline. He has a fine family background, and I have no doubt that he and Katie will make fine missionaries. Their burden is for a pioneering-type ministry, in a remote part of the world, and I believe that they have what it takes to be greatly used of God. They are certainly worthy of consideration by any fundamental, independent Baptist church. I trust that God will give you wisdom about the possibility of becoming involved in helping them get to the mission field.

Yours in Christ.

Charles L. Surrett,
Pastor
